

Isaac's Birth/Abraham Offers Isaac

Genesis 21:1-7; 22:1-19

The Story

God had promised Abraham not just one child but many children. Abraham and Sarah were getting very old and still they had no baby. God wanted to make Abraham's and Sarah's faith stronger. He wanted them to learn to trust only in Him.

The Lord came to Sarah and did something wonderful for Sarah, just as He had said He would. He gave Sarah and Abraham a baby boy when they were very old. Abraham was 100 and Sarah was 90 when they had their baby. This was exactly the time God wanted the baby to be born. Abraham called his new baby boy, Isaac. And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears that I have had a baby will join with me and also laugh." She knew everyone would be surprised and happy that two old people could have a baby.

After some years had passed, God wanted to be sure Abraham still loved and trusted only God. One day God told Abraham to take his only son, Isaac, the son he loved so very much, and offer Isaac up as a burnt offering to God. Abraham got up the very next morning. He called his only son, Isaac, and two servants to go with him. He got some wood to burn the offering. Then they started to travel. It took them three days to walk to the mountain. It was where God wanted them to be.

When they got there, Abraham told his servants to stay behind while he and Isaac went on a little further. Isaac was carrying the wood. Abraham had the fire and a knife. Isaac asked his father where the lamb was that they would offer on the fire to God. Abraham told Isaac that God would make sure they had a lamb.

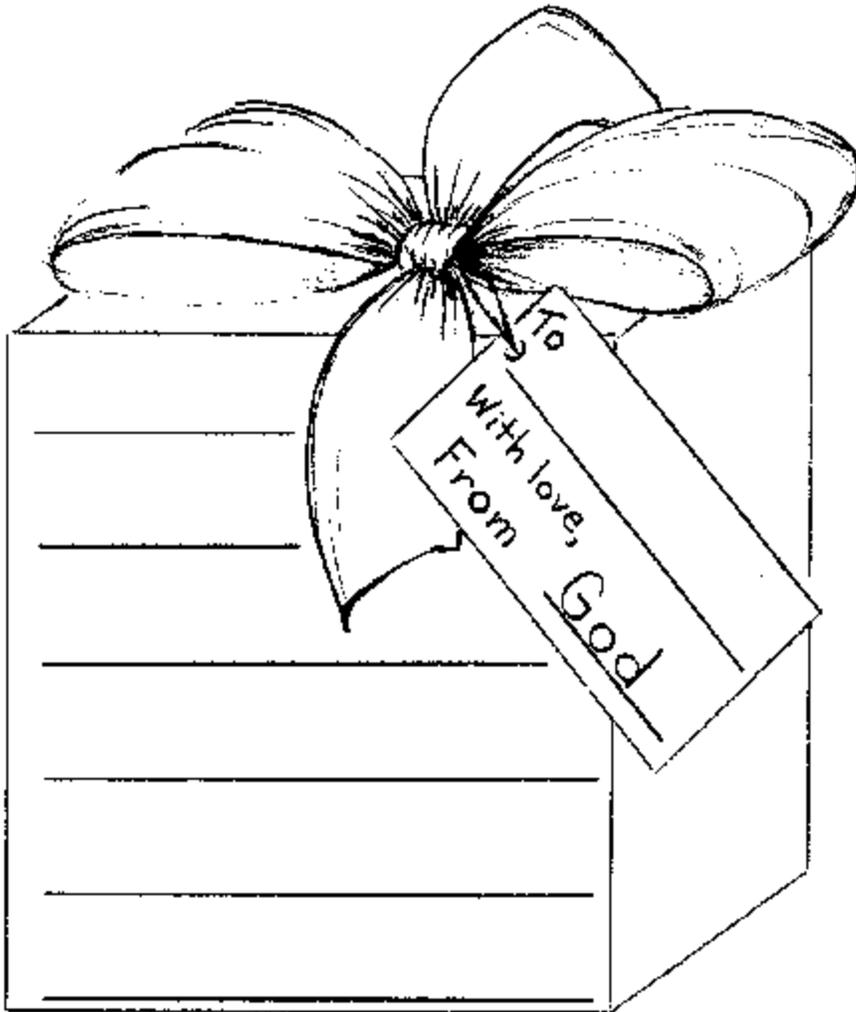

When they came to the exact place where God wanted them, Abraham built an altar. He put the wood on it. Last of all he tied Isaac up and put Isaac on the altar. He pulled out the knife and lifted it to kill his only son. Suddenly the Angel of the Lord called out to him and told him, "Don't kill your son. Don't even hurt him. Now I know you love and trust me more than even your only son. "

Just then Abraham saw a ram caught in some bushes behind him. Abraham took that ram and offered it on the altar instead of Isaac. Then the Angel of the Lord called out to Abraham again and said, "Because I know you love me more than your only son, I promise I will bless you and give you many more family members. Some day you will have such a big family you won't even be able to count everyone. Also, your large family will be very strong. Best of all, the Savior will come from your family and all the world will be blessed through the Savior."

Can you imagine how sad Abraham felt when God told him to offer his son as a burnt offering to God? Yet, he was going to do exactly what God told him to do. God made Abraham's faith strong, so he could do what God asked. He wants to make our faith strong too. He will take care of us just as He took care of Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac.

The Story

God had promised Abraham, who used to be called Abram, not just one child but many children. Abraham and Sarah were getting very old and still they had no baby. God wanted to make Abraham's and Sarah's faith stronger. He wanted them to learn to trust only in Him.

The Lord came to Sarah and did something wonderful for Sarah, just as He had said He would. He gave Sarah and Abraham a baby boy when they were very old. Abraham was 100 and Sarah was 90 when they had their baby. This was exactly the time God wanted the baby to be born.

Abraham called his new baby boy, Isaac. Abraham circumcised Isaac when Isaac was only eight days old, just as God had told him he should. And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears that I have had a baby will join with me and also laugh." She knew everyone would be surprised and happy that two old people could have a baby.

After some years had passed, God wanted to be sure Abraham still loved and trusted only God. One day God told Abraham to take his only son, Isaac, the son he loved so very much, and offer Isaac up as a burnt offering to God. Abraham got up the very next morning and called his only son, Isaac, and two servants to go with him. He got some wood to burn the offering and then they started to travel.

It took them three days to walk to the mountain where God wanted them to be. When they got there, Abraham told his servants to stay behind while he and Isaac went on a little farther. Isaac was carrying the wood. Abraham had the fire and a knife. Isaac asked his father where the lamb was that they would offer on the fire to God. Abraham told Isaac that God would make sure they had a lamb.

When they came to the exact place where God wanted them, Abraham built an altar. He put the wood on it. Last of all he tied Isaac up and put Isaac on the altar. He pulled out the knife and lifted it to kill his only son.

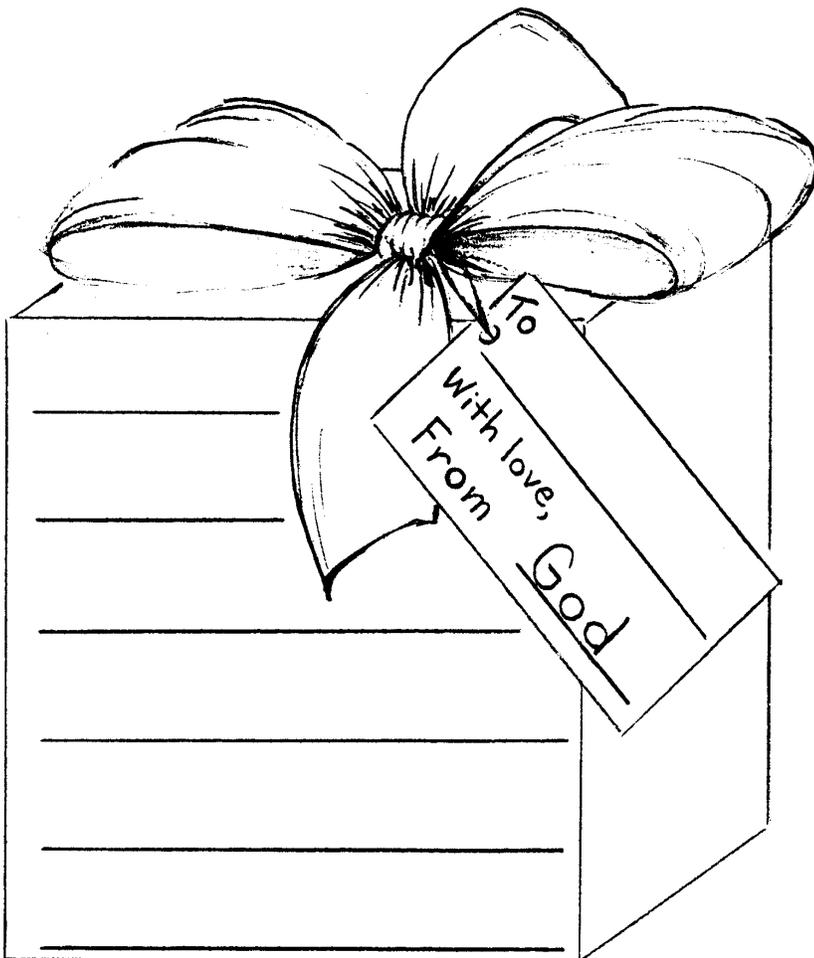

Suddenly the Angel of the Lord called out to him and told him, "Don't kill your son. Don't even hurt him. Now I know you love and trust Me more than even your only son. " Just then Abraham saw a ram caught in some bushes behind him. Abraham took that ram and offered it on the altar instead of Isaac. Abraham named the place "The Lord will Provide" because God helped him just as Abraham believed He would.

Then the Angel of the Lord called out to Abraham again and said, "Because I know you love me more than even your only son, I promise I will bless you and give you many more family members. Some day you will have such a big family you won't even be able to count everyone. Also, your large family will be very strong. Best of all, the Savior will come from your family and all the world will be blessed through the Savior."

Can you imagine how sad Abraham felt when God told him to offer his son as burnt offering to God? Yet, he was going to do exactly what God told him to do. God gave Abraham a strong faith. That is the only way Abraham could do what God asked of him. God also wants us to love and trust only Him. He will bless us and help us and will take care of us just as He took care of Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac.

The Story Genesis 21:1-7; 22:1-19

And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had spoken. {2} For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. {3} And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him; whom Sarah bore to him; Isaac. {4} Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. {5} Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

{6} And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me." {7} She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

22:1 Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!"

And he said, "Here I am."

{2} Then He said, "Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you."

{3} So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. {4} Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off. {5} And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you."

{6} So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together. {7} But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!"

And he said, "Here I am, my son."

Then he said, "Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

{8} And Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering." So the two of them went together.

{9} Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

{10} And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

{11} But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!"

So he said, "Here I am."

{12} And He said, "Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me."

{13} Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son. {14} And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day, "In the Mount of The LORD it shall be provided."

{15} Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, {16} and said: "By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son; {17} "blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. {18} "In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice."

{19} So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

The will of God is always best
And shall be done forever;
And they who trust in Him are blest,

He helps indeed in time of need,
He chastens with forbearing;
They who depend on God, their Friend,
Shall not be left despairing.

God is my Comfort and my Trust,
My Hope and Life abiding;
And to His counsel, wise and just,

By night and day God is my Stay,
He never sleeps nor slumbers.

Seed in the KJV, or descendant in NKJV is the same Hebrew word (offspring, child). Locate geographic names on a display map for students.

OUTER AIM

God strengthened Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac to live their lives dependent upon Him.

INNER AIM

One small step for God/one large step for mankind as Jehovah brought Abraham to revere, love, and trust in Him above/before anyone or anything else.

BACKGROUND (Rupprecht Bible History References, Vol.1, pp.66-69)

The point of reviewing God's ways with Abraham is to reveal how God operates. This is not a story of two old people who had a baby and the old man almost killed him, but a revelation of the original pattern of salvation: People are saved by God, into Whose hands they entrust their lives, their futures, and their eternal souls. Abraham and Isaac are original patterns of the way God thinks about humans and how He operates with us, which is the prime purpose of religion, after all. (How we think and operate with God is secondary.) Thus Abraham's biography contains milestones in God's routing to outmaneuver the enemy Satan.

After a lot of ups and downs (chs. 14-20) in Abram's life, the great event arrived. By now Ishmael was fourteen, but he was NOT the "one and only" special child the Lord had promised.

vs.1-3

It took special miracles to procreate this baby; for Sarai had never become pregnant during her fertile years and was now in menopause. Miraculously, the LORD saw to it that Sarai and Abram could engender a baby. After a normal pregnancy she gave birth, exactly as the LORD had promised them in 17:16-19, the "one-and-only" son to bear the covenant-promise: But My covenant I will establish with Isaac (not with Ishmael), born to Sarah (not to Hagar).

vs.4-7

Additional details: There was a specific requirement for a person to be included in the covenant of grace: a minor operation on the loose skin of the penis. Abraham performed the requirement. This was an external sign of internal, personal dedication of self to the LORD, ch.17:13. Isaac meaning "he laughs," now a source of rejoicing to an aged woman and the 100 yr. old father.

vs. 8-9

Isaac's passing from infancy to childhood was celebrated in the traditional way.

Hagar's teenager thought it ridiculous that he as firstborn would lose his spot to the new baby.

The sacrifice of Isaac, Ch. 22: 1-19

Secure against Ishmael's threat, Isaac grew into adulthood sheltered in the love of his parents.

v.1

We deduce that the LORD was not toying with Abraham, but that this test was necessary for Abraham's soul-care. The father's love for his one and only son needed adjusting lest it displace his love and respect for the LORD.

vs.2-5

There can be no doubt as to God's intent, for He spelled it out in detail. Thus Abraham was not in trouble with God (5th and 8th commandments) in telling his servants that the lad would return, for he was fully convinced that after he killed Isaac, God would raise him back to life (Heb.11:17-19).

vs.6-8

Although Isaac was perplexed, Abraham's loving response helped him maintain the highest trust.

vs.9-12

Step by step, Abraham moved forward with faith in the LORD; Isaac submitted out of confidence in his father. It was no game-playing for Abraham to build the altar, bind Isaac upon it, and raise the knife for a fatal stab. The LORD has seen into his heart: Now I know speaks of knowledge based on the evidence, just as His final judgment will be based on evidence of actions. (Deeds are the product of motives, which are engineered in the powerplant-heart; and the engineer for spiritual activity is the LORD.) Jehovah had won over Abraham's heart to love and revere Him above and beyond even his dearly beloved one and only son.

The substituted animal, providentially provided, was returned to the LORD as a thank-offering for all His goodness. (Jesus had no such substitute, for the stakes were too high to allow it.)

By time Moses wrote this account, it had become a proverbial saying full of Messianic meaning: "In the hill of Jehovah provision is made."

v.15

The Angel of the LORD, identifying Himself as God (both here and in vv.11-12), took an oath on Himself. This level of assurance occurs only twice elsewhere in Scripture! He reaffirmed the blessings of ch.12, reaching the zenith in "all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in your seed," the seed identified as Jesus in Galatians 3:16.

v.16 As this chapter in his life closes, Abraham is at home in Beersheba, chastened and strengthened by the experience on Moriah, the child of God who has become the hero of faith, the exemplar for every generation of God's sons and daughters.

STUDENT PRAYER

Dear Lord Jesus, I would really like You to direct me just as you did Abraham. I probably don't need a vision or a direct visit, so I'll try to content myself with Your words given me in the Bible. Help me to learn how to apply Scripture to my life, just as I apply Your love to my life. Thanks for everything. Amen.

PRESENTATION

Abraham's Faith

This is not the story of an old man who almost murdered his boy, nor is it a Jewish legend of a blood-thirsty God who enjoyed torturing people. Rather, we see here that our LORD was following a faith-building program to strengthen and toughen Abraham to depend on His best judgment in all situations. (Modern bodybuilders understand the value of stressing muscles in order to strengthen. Olympic-class athletes get there by heroic exercise regimens.) These two selected episodes from the chronicles of Abraham will be understood and properly evaluated (at least by the teacher, maybe also by the student) only by rehearsing some of the other highlights in God's program of strength-training for Abraham--chapters twelve through twenty-one.

That is, when he left his fatherland with its familiar comforts...when he gave up his ties to family and tribe...when he endured the privation of childlessness...when he lost contact with nephew Lot...when he lost Ishmael as the potential "chosen seed"...(plus a lot more) each step of the way the LORD assisted, nurtured, and assured Abraham that He would take care of the whole program, even in the details, so that by the time of the sacrifice of Isaac, Abraham had been strengthened enough (in relying on the LORD) to be able to give up his one-and-only boy, if God so requested it.

God's Promises

Promises are meant to be kept. A promise-maker is obligated for two reasons: to prove the promise-maker reliable, and to benefit the person receiving the promise. That's how God works--whether in small or large promises; God does not make a promise He won't or can't keep; so when He pledges Himself to do the job of saving our souls and to be our Helper in all earthly needs, we can bank on it that He will keep His word.

Human Limitations

Perhaps one of your students has a handicap. Can God turn a handicap into a good tool in His service? Certainly! (I have seen a preacher severely handicapped with cerebral palsy deliver a tremendous sermon entitled: "I'M NOT O.K.; YOU'RE not O.K.") Every child of God has his/her limitations; even the apostle Paul had a severe one, and God let it bother Paul all his life because Paul had enough of God's grace to carry him past/over/around his handicap to become the greatest soul-winner in the early Christian Church.

APPLICATION

1. Why do we spend time learning about Abraham and Isaac? Through such examples we can learn how God functions. Just as we learn the laws of gravity, electricity and magnetism, light and heat, the ecosystem, etc., so that we use and make applications of these laws to ourselves, so we learn of God's ways with sinners in order to apply His rule of grace to our own salvation.

2. Since there are notable correspondences between Isaac and Jesus, a special reason for placing this OT episode into the series is to help us concentrate on our Savior. Some similarities are:

- each was the "one-and-only" son of the father;
- each was long-promised and long-awaited;
- each bore the promise of bringing blessings to all nations;
- no human substitute dare take his place (not Ishmael for Isaac/not anyone imperfect for Jesus);
- each submitted obediently to the father's will (as a lamb to the slaughter);
- each to be sacrificed on Moriah (the site of the temple in Jerusalem);
- Isaac was as good as dead until the third day; Jesus physically dead until the third day;
- each returned to his father to carry out his life's purpose.

In these ways Isaac is a type of Jesus, and Jesus is the prototype for Isaac.

3. It's a miracle when a baby is born (and it is the sin of murder to choose to abort); Isaac's birth was almost as big a miracle as the virgin birth of Jesus. This demonstrates that God ignores human limitations when He chooses to do so in order to get His salvation program moving forward or to pass it on from one soul to another.

The Story

Parents: Review this lesson with your child.

God had promised Abraham a son. Abraham and Sarah were getting very old and still they had no baby.

The Lord kept His promise just as He said He would. He gave Sarah and Abraham a baby boy when they were very old. Abraham was 100 and Sarah was 90 when they had their baby. This was exactly the time God wanted the baby to be born. Abraham called his new baby boy Isaac. And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears that I have had a baby will join with me and also laugh."

After some years had passed, God told Abraham to take his only son, Isaac, the son he loved so very much, and offer Isaac up as a burnt offering to God. Abraham got up the very next morning. He called his only son, Isaac, and two servants to go with him. He got some wood to burn the offering. Then they started to travel. It took them three days to walk to the mountain. It was where God wanted them to be.

When they got there, Abraham told his servants to stay behind while he and Isaac went on a little further. Isaac was carrying the wood. Abraham had the fire and a knife. Isaac asked his father where the lamb was that they would offer on the fire to God. Abraham told Isaac that God would make sure they had a lamb.

When they came to the exact place where God wanted them, Abraham built an altar. He put the wood on it. Last of all he tied Isaac up and put Isaac on the altar. He pulled out the knife and lifted it to kill his only son. Suddenly the Angel of the Lord called out to him and told him, "Don't kill your son. Don't even hurt him. Now I know you love and trust me more than even your only son."

Just then Abraham saw a ram caught in some bushes behind him. Abraham took that ram and offered it on the altar instead of Isaac.

Then the Angel of the Lord called out to Abraham again and said, "Because I know you love me more than your only son, I promise I will bless you and give you many more family members. Some day you will have such a big family you won't even be able to count everyone. Also, your large family will be very strong. Best of all, the Savior will come from your family and all the world will be blessed through the Savior."

God strengthened Abraham, Sarah and Isaac to live their lives dependent upon Him.

All of us should love and trust God above anything else.
